“ *To the family of Rolandus Bailey:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ I offer encouragement and comfort from God's Word. Jesus said: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Exercise faith in God, exercise faith also in me." ~John 14:1. God's loving resurrection provision assures us: "Your dead ones will live....They will rise up." ~Isaiah 26:19. Jesus assures us of his role in this promise...at John 11:25, he states: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." "God's Word is Truth" (John 17:17)
