“ We are deeply saddened by the loss of a dear friend and classmate who has been close to our family. Ronald has always been nothing but kind and considerate of others. Through the years he attended our family reunions, weddings of the family and kept in contact with family members. All who knew him will miss him and his quiet spirit. Words, however kind, can't mend your heartache: but those who care and share your loss wish you comfort and peace of mind. May God comfort and keep you continuously in your hours of bereavement. Where there is pain, may He give you His perfect peace that you so richly deserve? God in his infinite wisdom knows what you are going through and He cares for you. The sacrifice of His Son on the cross gives believers access into eternal life and eternal rest with loves ones who have died in Christ. The bible says that we will see them again! I'm praying for friends to comfort you, faith to uphold you, and loving memories to help you smile again. If the Spires family can assist you in any way, please let us know. With Deepest Sympathy, Sarah P. Spires, Marianna, FL Marinda Liggans, Tallahassee, FL

“ We offer sincere condolences and encouragement from the scriptures. God's Word assures us that: The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. (John 5:28, 29). Jesus offers a wonderful reminder at John 14:1 - Do not let your hearts be troubled. Exercise faith in God, exercise faith also in me. May you have peace!
