“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family of Mr Ronald W English. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. Comfort can be found in God’s word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ Mr.English certainly was blessed with the strength mentioned at Psalms 90:10. Although living a full life, he will surely be missed by loved ones. Jehovah the God of all comfort (Romans 15:4) has commissioned his Son to awaken all those who have fallen asleep (John 5: 28, 29). Please kindly accept my sympathy and may these scriptures bring you much needed comfort.

“ My prayer goes out to the English family, I would like to express my condolence at this time to your family. The Bible is a great source of encouragement at times like this, a comforting thought is at Revelation 21:4 And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away

“ My prayers go out to the English family. I met Ron in 1989 when I was assigned to the same NATO unit in Heidelberg, GE. Day to day we worked together as co-workers and then friends. I'll always remember a bad snowstorm when he was caught out on a field exercise and his wife was stuck in Frankfurt for a Teacher's Conf. He called the school and gave me permission to pick up their kids and they with my one had a fun time at my house over the snow storm. When the weather abated and he came to get them two days later , no one wanted to go home and he laughingly said - you of course can keep them. And although we haven't talked in years - I always remember his smile and his passion for what he did. Rest now my friend....
