My sincere sympathy to Shirley and family upon the passing of your dear Ron. He was a blessing to us at Willow Place. He was a kind and friendly person and memories of him will remain with us, especially at bingo, where he was a frequent winner, just as I'm sure he was in life. God grant you endurance through this difficult time. Estelle Watts

*Mr. Ron ,
I'm grateful that I had the opportunity to share space and time with you. Your presence made a difference, and it will always be remembered.*

You were such a beautiful soul—pleasant to be around, kind, and consistent. I truly appreciate the care you showed in making sure I had what I needed during that time.

May your journey home be peaceful and filled with light. My deepest condolences
