“ I was blessed to know Ron and pleased to consider him a friend. We worked together in Fulton County and continued to stay in touch afterward. He was truly the shirt of his back kind of guy. I miss him.

“ My late wife Lisa Marie Merrifield Riley and I were friends with Ron and his lovely wife!!! I will always remember Ron and Lisa laughing and playing around at the Georgia State University vs. Mercer University basketball games in Atlanta at GSU. They were so happy to see each other and Ron's laugh and smile would brighten up anybody's day. Ron was a class act all the way and his joy and love is a gift that will forever remain in my heart!!!

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family. The loss of a love one brings much grief and agony, but there is so much comfort that can be found in God’s word the bible. The promise of a resurrection at John 5:28, 29 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. Taking in true knowledge of the true God and his son Jesus, assures us eternal life. (John 17:3)

“ My condolences to the family of Ronald during this difficult time. May you be comforted by your loving memories, family, and close friends. Know that our Heavenly Father Jehovah is near to us in our time of need. Gods word the Bible assures us a time when sickness and death will be done away with, (Revelations 21:1-4) and a time when will reunite with our loved ones again (Acts 24:15 , John 5:28,29) Draw close to God in prayer. Philippians 4:7 tells us that God will grant us the mental peace we need by means of Jesus Christ. May this peace be with you now, and the days ahead.
