“ We were heartbroken when we received the news that Ron had received his wings, however, joyful for his journey to be with our Savior. Ron was a member of the West Monroe High School Class of '72 (West Monroe, LA. As a classmate, he was cool, and very popular, with many friends and as an adult, he left his footprints on the cities of Monroe and West Monroe, standing tall and paving the way for many. We were and still are, so very proud of the accomplishments of our classmate. We will miss him dearly, but will hold the memories of our time together close to our hearts. His Best Friend, Rev. Calvin D. Cyrus, reminded us that Ron knew the Lord, so he is okay. We extend our heartfelt sympathies to Ron's Family. May God's peace and love surround you all now and in the days ahead. Much love from the WMHS Class of '72.

Our sorrows go out to Ron and his family. I worked security with Ron at the Monroe Regional airport as a Monroe police officer. My wife and I also attended church with his mother and we became so close with her we call her mom. He was such a friendly professional person. We became great friends who could talk and confide in one another. I will miss him. Rest in peace with the lord’s presence. From Billy Jordan and family!
