“ With deepest sympathy I write these words of encouragement. There are times in life when you admire people and have the upmost respect and love for them and they don't have a clue. Ronnie pooh was that person for me. my baby cousin who I watch over the years right into manhood. I did not see him a lot but the times I did he would greet me with that warm smile. I saw him at his daughter's school serving at the dinner theater, at his wedding and other family celebrations. He was special to me because he reminded me so much of his uncle Otis and my dad Castell they embodied that same spirit of love and family. To know him was to love him and he will be greatly missed. Laresha, Aunt Lee and family, may God keep you in perfect peace. You will be remembered in my prayers. Love Kim Malcom

“ When I first started working at AAL I was nervous about what the future held and if I would be a good fit for the company. Ronnie was such a big part of getting me acclimated and building my confidence with the job. He was literally the most knowledgeable person at that plant. His experience and passion inspired me to work harder and his positive attitude kept me motivated. Working with him was always fun and easy.

The world truly lost a gem. Ronnie was a shining example of a true black family man. He really gave me something to look up to and always offered great advice and encouragement. Hearing him talk about his wife and kids and the genuine love he had for them truly warmed my heart. Ronnie gave me so much life advice and never hesitated to share his experience. I have learned SO much in the short time I've known him.

I pray that he rests in absolute perfect peace and I ask God to cover his family through these tough times.

“ To whom it may concern: My condolences to the Fuller family. My prayers and thoughts go out to you Laresha and your family. I recall living with little Ronnie and "Tip Tip" for a period of time. He was very active in sports and I used to play with him and his sister. He use to aggravate Tiffany as they would play together. He really grew up and matured into a fine young man. He will be TRULY BE MISSED.
