

Ronny Sykes

August 24, 1955 - May 24, 2021

Ronny Sykes of Columbus, Mississippi (1955 - 2021) passed peacefully on Monday, May 24th. Ronny was born to the late George W. Sykes and Pinky Nell Jones of Columbus, Mississippi.

He was happily married to the beautiful Glynis Sykes of St. Louis, Missouri. Together they raised three magnificent young men: Derek Gregory Sykes, Darius Perrian Garner, and Reginald Kevin Garner.

Ronny enjoyed the simple things in life, but somehow always made the simple things seem extraordinary through his wisdom. He enjoyed cooking, painting, and admiring God's gift of the outdoors. His passion resided in his commitment to providing for his family and making sure their needs were met before his. Ronny was a strong example of a man. Physically and mentally. He was a man of perseverance, endurance, peacefulness, and understanding. The best way to remember Ronny is to picture him sitting on the porch, baseball cap on, a glass of Canadian Club, and him humming his favorite tunes. As said before, he enjoyed the simple things in life. Something he truly believed God intended for.

Ronny is to be reunited with his late family members: his mother Pinky Nell Jones, his father George W. Sykes, his brother Kent Sykes, and his two sisters Sylvia Sykes & Margaret Hooper.

Ronny's legacy will be carried on through the sons he raised, his six grandchildren, his lovely wife, and the many loving family members and friends that had the opportunity to have him in their lives.

“ Please pray for his family during this difficult time. Ronny was a great man and an even better friend. He loved to laugh and make you laugh harder. He love to talk about food that he was going to make and the time that I got to try them they were some of the most delicious dishes that I have tried. He loved his friends, but loved his family more. I know he always talked about them with a gleam in his eyes because he was so proud of them. Ronny will be missed by all who knew him.

Till we meet again I love you Brother.
