“ Grief can be so hard, but our special memories help us cope during this most difficult time. May the God of all comfort and the love of your family give you the strength you need to endure. (2 Corinth. 1:3,4)

“ No one is ever prepared for the loss of a loved one. However, each time a life is lost on earth, we gain an angel to watch over us in heaven. More so, they remain alive as a part of us forever. Our heartfelt condolences go out to you and your family. You are all in our thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. Sincerely, DLI-Washington

“ My condolences to the family of Roosevelt Glover. No matter who we are, death is difficult. However, isn't it wonderful that God has given us his word the Bible where we can find his promises that gives us all hope. One of the many scriptures I find comforting during difficult times is found at 2 Corinthians 1:3,4. It says, Praised be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials so that we may be able to comfort others in any sort of trial with comfort that we receive from God. First Corinthians 15:26 tells us how God feels about death, it states: And the last enemy death, is to be brought to nothing. God hates death and he views it as an enemy. Because of so much pain and suffering (i.e. death), many wonder, does God really care about us. First Peter 5:7 states: while you throw all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you. “ To my family, I am deeply saddened about the passing of Uncle Roosevelt. My heart aches, but I am reminded that God is too wise and too just to make any mistakes. Weeping may endure for a night but Joy will surely come in the morning. Sleep on Uncle Roosevelt you will be truly missed??love your niece Kimberly Glover.
