

Ms. Rosa Bell Johnson- Fowler

February 15, 1951 - June 17, 2022

Rosa Bell Harper Johnson Fowler of Atlanta Georgia, left this world after 71 years. On June 17, 2022 after a courageous battle with pancreatic cancer, God allowed her to peacefully transition to her spiritual home, surrounded by her children and grandchildren in the home of her son in Lilburn, GA.

Rosa was born (at home) in Sharon Georgia to Carrie Lee Harper and Robert Lee Johnson on February 15, 1951. Raised in the home of Emma Lee Johnson (Step-mother), she graduated from Lucy Laney High School of Augusta, Georgia. She lived with her grandmother Annie Grace Carr after moving to Atlanta in 1980. She started her career at the VA Medical center holding multiple positions within the Pathology and Laboratory Medicine Department. After 38 years, she retired as a Lab Administrator. She also demonstrated her entrepreneurial talents as the owner of her own lottery prediction algorithm, a Mary Kay consultant, and was pivotal in helping to build and operate her daughter's business TaxPro Financial Services! After retirement, she volunteered her services at the Emmaus House (recreational center and church for underprivileged youth), and helped to care for her grandchildren.

Rosa was known for her green thumb. She planted and beautifully maintained flowers, fruits and vegetables as well as a famous Peachtree (featured in Atlanta Trees Magazine) that she shared with her community where she was well known, loved, and adored.

Rosa is preceded by Robert Johnson Jr (Father), Carrie Lee Harper (Mother), Robert Johnson, III (Brother), Johnnie Lee Williams (Sister), and John Cornelius Pitts (Partner for 25 years).

She is survived by her children; Jamey Clark & Dr. Kathleen Johnson (Son and Daughter In-law), Kimberly Fowler (Daughter), and Jessica & Marcell Gunter (Daughter and Son In-Law); Siblings; Diane & Thomas Dorsey (Sister and Brother In-Law), Carrie Brown (Sister), Randy Hackney (Brother), Joseph Hampton (Brother), and Johnnie Hampton (Brother); Grandchildren Samantha Johnson, Asia Johnson, and Soren Johnson; Raychaud Jemon Goolsby, Johnathan Dewuane Giles, Jessadora Blessings Gunter, Marcella Bella-Grace Gunter, Pria Avoni Gunter. She is also survived by Larry Fowler, Vernon Dixon, and a host of cousins, friend, and neighbors that will miss her dearly.

“ Rosa was such a loving and beautiful person who praised God daily. She loved her family members. Our families lived in Reynoldstown and attended the old St. Philips AME church and later Bearden Temple AME church. My children Richard Freeman- (Pork) and Denisha- (Chelle) McNair went to school and church with Jamey, Kimberly and Jessica. I worked at the V A Hospital and retired from VA Hospital. We were like family and I will truly miss my friend Rosa. Truly a child of God who always let her light shine before everyone. God bless you and keep you, Jamey, Kimberly and Jessica. The Benson and Freeman family love you always.
