“ Mother Rose was an invaluable asset to the Redeemer's Sanctuary, and her presence was truly a blessing to all of us. We are profoundly grateful for the time we had the privilege of spending with her, as she was an abundant source of wisdom and unwavering positivity. Through her inspiring stories, she instilled in us the belief that anything is achievable through Christ Jesus. Mother Rose's vibrant spirit ensured that there was never a dull moment, and her cherished memories will forever serve as a remarkable blessing to us all. May her beautiful soul rest in the bosom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

“The best mother ever! Kept her word, protected her tribe, taught about Jesus, worked beyond hard and LOVED her family. She was the Ma Dukes of Lakeview who fed and welcomed everyone. I will miss her every day until we meet again.

Well I don't have the words to say how I am feeling these past few days. I do know that I am glad that I gave you the many flowers you deserved while you were alive. 🌹 Thank you for being there to teach and guide me. I will love & miss your smile and laugh. Thank you for all the good memories. I will always hold you in my spirit always. Love you Always & Forever - your oldest daughter Nettie
