“ Mommie I love and miss you so much, although I know you are resting in peace safe with our heavenly Father.
Ooops I mean "your God" and : "your Jesus"
Its hard to carry on without you here, but you taught me to "push thru", and that's what I'll do
Tell Daddy, Pop, MeMe, Poppie and all of those aunts, uncles, friends and cousins whom I know will be so happy to see you free of pain and strife.. Tell them I will be with you'all when its my time. I'll go up Jacobs Ladder to the Pearly gates of Heaven.. Where Mommie I fully expect you to lead the welcoming parade dressed in all of your finery to aid the Father in welcoming me with his loving arms. So i'm happy you are there to rest in peace. I know you all are safe with the Father and I'll be with you all by and by..
God speed Sister Rose, God speed!

From your loving daughter who is pushing thru

“ Mother Rose, you didn't want to be called Mother, you said call you Sister! Even fighting through your health issues, you graced the Voices of Faith Church with your royal presence! A GRAND ENTRANCE you always made when you would attend. A warm smile and a huge hug you always made and you never wanted anyone to make a fuss over you! Thanking you showing me to have a NEVER LET EM SEE YOU SWEAT attitude when you're dealing with something or feeling bad. I know you've made a grand entranve into Heaven. Even though you're not with us in the flesh, we rejoice in knowing you've been made whole! Until me meet again..... Elder Shel

“ Sister Rose we already miss your beautiful spirit and smile. Every time I was in your presence I was inspired. Thank you for all the wonderful memories, the love and the hugs you’ve shared with the Voices of Faith Family. Please know we love you and your sweet memory will live in our hearts forever.

*It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone
A part of us went with you
The day God called you home
If tears could build a stairway
And headaches make a lane
We'd walk our way to heaven
And bring you back again
In life we love you dearly
In death we love you still
In our hearts you hold a place
No one could ever fill.*

“ *To the Family of Rose Harrison:
I will never forget when she reminded me of my responsibilities as a church mother. Now I can understand why she felt that way. We were raised up trained and nurtured in the House of God where we were taught how we were to care and love one another. Yes we were taught to check on each other and pray for one another. Thank you for allowing me the opportunity to call and chat with you when you couldn't make it to church. Yes I will miss our many conversations.*

To the Family she fought a good fight and finished her course. I can visualize her making her way across the front of Voices of Faith every chance her health allowed. Rest in Peace Mother Rose Harrison. You will be missed.

*Love and Blessings to the Family

“I made it home I just wanted to let you know that I made it home. Everything is so pretty here, so white, so fresh, so new. I wish that you could close your eyes so you could see it too. Please try not to be sad for me. Try to understand. God is taking care of me...I'm in the shelter of his hands. Here there is no sadness, and no sorrow, and no pain. Here there is no crying, and I'll never hurt again. Here it is peaceful when all the angels sing. I really have to go for now... I've just got to try my wings. PS... I'll be the first face you see when you get here!”

*We miss you Moma,
