“ To the family & friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few find the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that God works in mysterious ways or that God needed another angel, does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ My fondest memory of my grandma was all the summers I spent in Jacksonville Florida as a child I am going to miss the crab boils and grape picking and homemade cakes and pies. I am also going to miss her warm loving, caring heart. R.I.P Nanna

“ To Family and Friends of Rose Jones: May the God of all comfort give you all peace as you look ahead to the time when death will be no more and all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. God is faithful and he always keeps his promises! Consider Revelation 21:3-5, John 5:28,29 and Isaiah 55:10,11. Continue to draw close to God (in prayer) and he will draw close to you. ~James 4:8.
