“ To The Children (and other Family):

Ashlee, Alex and Denzel; Just know I loved Mommy like my very own little sister. There was no secret I couldn't tell her. She would laugh at all my little crazy and weird stories. She was forever the loving and giving person. I'm still having problems processing this information - my heart bleeds for you all. So many people may love you but there is nothing on Earth like Mommy's love. Can't believe she's gone! What will happen to us - her many friends? I still remember the words each of you said on Mother's Day at Grace Palace. You all loved her so much and she loved you more, each of you and individually so. I know you realize there is nothing she wouldn't do to ensure your happiness and well being. She was a calm and peaceful soul that would cry at the drop of a hat when people were mean and rude to each other or persecuted each other. What memories, what wonderful thoughts of this Lady. That's the only way I'll make it through this difficult time. May I suggest you do the same? I can only imagine what you must be feeling. Know this: Our God does not take without giving. In light of the fact that she was His daughter before she became your Mother; so...He reserved the right to summon her home whenever He was ready for her. He will give you Peace as the days, weeks, and months pass. We will always love this individual and celebrate the wonderful, Godly woman she was. You may write or call me at anytime. Always here for you!

Love ya!

“ My dearest friend and sister Rose,

Five years ago, God ordained our meeting and ever since then we became more than friends. we were not related biologically but you became my sister in every sense. Your presence is missed greatly especially dinner time. My family and I were so blessed that you have considered us a family and spent many hours of your time with us. We've shared our hearts and mind openly with no reservations and I will always treasure those moments. No regrets because our time spent on friendship, love, appreciation, giving and receiving, Praying, Praising and worshipping God together was well spent. I just Miss you so much!!! I am still in a stage of numbness and thinking that you will walk into my house singing "Break every chain".

Thank you Rose for your warm, gentle, and generous heart. I've always said that your heart is ten times bigger than anyone I knew because you always gave without reservations. You had no respectful person because you saw good in everyone.

Friday, 1st of May when you came to my house in the morning with Seal, you said that your mind is at peace and that you just want to be in the presence of God. The very next day you left this earth to be in the presence of God. You are no longer living like a prisoner but you are free so take your angel wings and soar.

May God Bless those who are left behind. May God comfort us with His peace that passes all understanding. Teach us Lord to live our life fully by reflecting the love of Jesus Christ daily. Teach us to give and show love while there is breath in our body. Help us Lord that we will never take anything for granted but always learn to appreciate the precious gift of family, friends, people but most of all life. A_Men!

“ My condolences to the family. I am heart broken with few words so I will offer scriptures to confort the family.

1 Thessalonians 4 13-17

But I do not want you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning those who have fallen asleep, lest you sorrow as others who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring Him those who sleep in Jesus.

For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord will by no means precede those who are asleep. For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord.

“ If memory serves me correctly, my wife and I hired Rose in 1980 for a position of Customer Service Representative at my small printing company. Little did I know that I was hiring someone who'd work with me for approximately 26-27 years consecutively! After selling my company she moved with me to two other companies, serving as my CSR and Project Manager. Our relationship evolved from employer-employee over the years to one where I truly considered her a 2nd sister. She'd "put me in my place" without hesitation, but I always knew that Rose "had my back!" After leaving the last company a few years before I did, we didn't see much of each other, but we made a point to always call each other on our birthdays. I last spoke with her on her birthday back in March, and I know I would have received a call from her last Thursday, May 14, on my birthday (asking me how does it feel to be so old!).

No one, absolutely NO ONE, was a more caring, generous and concerned person than Rosemarie Lebert! Rest in peace, my sister. Love ya lots, and I'll miss ya much!

“ I dont know where to start. The most amazing lady I ever met. She was their for me through out my bad time, when I was sick and when I needed to have some one to talk to. My girls love her so much. She was another mother to them. I never met anyone like her. I am heartbroken that she is gone. But she will never be forgotten.
