“ I had the pleasure of meeting Rosemary over 30 years ago and have many fond memories from those years. I could always see the love in her heart for her family. To me, she was like a little firecracker — small in stature but strong-willed and never afraid to speak her mind. If you crossed her, you were probably going to have a bad day.

I loved seeing her with her daughter and grandkids — the joy on her face said it all. She cherished them immensely.

I'm going to miss her lively spirit, her jokes, her laughter, and that smile. I know she loved orchids, so I'll plant some in her honor. I'm grateful for the times we shared and saddened that we didn't have more.

“ Auntie Rose you were one beautiful and bossy woman. Always dressed to the T and always carried yourself like a lady. The times we shared will never be forgotten. Those conversations and the advice will always be treasured. I'm saddened that you have to leave, but I'm rejoicing that you are in the arms of the Father. No more pain...no more suffering. Until I see you again...Weet :(
