“ May God comfort the family as only He can. He will bring peace in the midst of your grief and give you strength to live life with joy and purpose. I love Roshonda as my daughter and we shared very heart felt conversations. I will miss her warm smile and loving heart.

See you later Ro

“ I am sending my condolences to the Scruggs family. I may not have known her for a long time, but whenever i saw her she always had a big smile on her face. She was always kind to me, and she appreciated my cooking. May God bless you all.

“ My friend I'm going to truly miss you. We shared stories, gave each other advise, laughed at one another and you was always there when i needed you the most. You've been a great friend and will always live within me. Man God knows how to pick em even when I want to be selfish and keep you here on earth. Who's going to keep me calm when I'm on edge now. I know you're not in pain anymore and dancing with the angels. Such a beautiful soul.

“ My condolences to the Scgruggs family...I worked with Rosho as I called her for 14 years. I so appreciate her love and light. She loved her family so much. Words cannot express what Rosho meant and still means to me. May her light continue to shine in our hearts.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the family and friends of Roshonda. She was a remarkable person and everyone at Faneuil is better for having known her. We were humbled by her kindness and compassion to everyone.

She will be greatly missed and everyone here is saddened by her death. Know that our thoughts and prayers are with her family and friends during this difficult time.

Sincerely, Jeffrey Nance
