“ To Rosie's Family and friends, I know how difficult this time must be for you. May the light from God's word the bible be a guide and comfort through the darkness of your loss. John 5:28,29 gives hope of a future resurrection and Rev 21:3,4 of a day when there will be no more death, mourning or pain.. Jesus at John 11:11 said to his disciples..Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep. My prayers are with you and your family...

“ To the Family:Please remember that God is for us a refuge and strength, a help that is readily to be found during distresses. ~Psalm 46:1. He has already made provisions to restore dead ones to life. Jesus said...I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. ~John 11:25. Keep in mind...God is faithful and always keeps his promises! ~Isaiah 55:11, Revelation 21:3-5

“ Dear family and friends of Ms. Williams-Please accept our sincere condolences. Though we did not know Ms. Williams personally, we too have been affected by the loss of a loved one. We were able to find comfort in the Bible's message at (Romans 5:21): To what end? That, just as sin ruled as king with death, likewise also undeserved kindness might rule as king through righteousness with everlasting life in view through Jesus Christ our Lord. This describes our condition now, one where we all sin and therefore die. However God and Christ have set forth the purpose where everlasting life will be given as a gift to all loyal followers. This prospect of everlasting life and seeing our loved ones again brought us great comfort and we hope that it does the same for you.

“ To Gwenda and family, I'm Sorry is not enough to express my feelings. My heart, thoughts and prayers are with you. If possible, when possible, think of her spark, spunk and all of the other qualities that made you laugh and helped to develop the persons that you have become. Many, many hugs, kisses and prayers. With all my heart. LaVeta
