“ Her Journey's Just Begun Don't think of her as gone away her journey's just begun, life holds so many facets this earth is only one. Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years. Think how she must be wishing that we could know today how nothing but our sadness can really pass away. And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched... for nothing loved is ever lost and she was loved so much. -Poem written by Ellen Brenneman Viola, the homegoing celebration for Momma Rushie was absolutely beautiful! You did a wonderful job in the care of her. I'm sure it brought a smile to her face as she looked down from Heaven. Momma Rushie is all well now... and now, it's time for you to take care of yourself as she would have you to do! We love you, Debra, Dot & Jr, Quail, & Niecy

“ My condolences to the family of Rushie Burns. when we lose a loved one we lose so much. A devoted mother, friend, whatever role they may have played in your life the loss is painful. That is why at times like this we can gain comfort from the promises our Heavenly Father holds out to us at John 5:28,29 and Isaiah 25:8. His assurances that we will see our loved ones again under much better conditions help us to move forward. May his words and the strength he offers (Isaiah 41:10,13) along with the loving support of family and friends help you through this difficult time.

“ Viola, We are never prepared for the loss of a love one, but God is always prepared to help us through that loss. May His presence begin the healing in your heart and soul, and may His love surround you with the comfort only He can give. I will call you later to check on you. My heart is with you and your family today.

“ Viola, My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family as you go through this time. My prayer is that God grants you all the peace that surpasses all of your understanding as you celebrate the life of your mother. Heaven has truly gained an angel and her legacy lives on in you. Remember to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. She is truly smiling that beautiful smile of hers. I Love you. Janetta Vickers
