“ The last time I spoke to Russell my dear friend was on Sunday after the World Series we spoke about the game and he showed great enthusiasm for the game and our conversation, I was his coworker in Air Products in Conyers Ga, I was the last one to drive with him before his passing, we had great times as we worked together the stories were great, we laughed together a lot I also helped Russell know the job more when he first started in 2020, I will surely miss my friend, till this day it's hard for me to grasp truly grateful he was my friend may you lay easy my friend and may the Lord grant your family peace in these hard days RIP RUS!!!!

“ The last time I laid eyes on my dearly beloved handsome nephew was a few months ago. My how we laughter and shared so much fun just being there with him. I was so honored to host Thanksgiving last year with most of our family, and so excited when my darling nephew came in the house dancing and singing his heart out, what fun and laughter we had that day, my nephew always brought so much joy and happiness in his heart just to be in his presence truly made everyone’s day, he really knew how to bring a deep smile on everyone’s face. We all believe God doesn’t make any mistakes, but this is truly a very deep pain within ALL our hearts that can never be replaced. You will never be forgotten. “Bluboy” may you RIP in the Living Arms of our Father on high. Always in our heart. We Live n miss you my darling nephew, Always your Aunt Lynne. ☐

My dearest friend Wanda, there are some things in life that we may never understand, things that are unexplained, and things that we faced. Just you know this that you can call on me anytime! I am praying for you and your family during this difficult time, having lost a sibling myself I understand your grief. But call on Him when you need that extra strength and I will keep you up in prayer! Have faith that He knows and understands why💜💜 I love you girl! Family friend, Felicia Benjamin
