“ Russell and I described each other as best friends. We had a wonderful friendship throughout the years that was always sincere and candid. He could shoot from the hip and I could throw it back. We loved each other for that. There would be long periods of time when we would not connect but once we did it was like no time had passed at all. I am so proud of what he has accomplished and even prouder of his family. To Bridget, Payton and Tyson, although I cannot be there, just know that my thought and prayers are with you. And, although my tears are flowing, I have unmeasurable joy in my heart that I got a chance to talk with him before he left. From my family to yours.....we are always here for you...From me to my best friend, I will love you always....Linda Johnson Blake

“ God bless you all. Russell and I went through elementary, junior high and high school together in DC and we were 25th Street neighbors. You could always count on Russell to be the gentleman. I was saddened to hear of his mother passing not so long ago too and to see the family home change hands. I bid farewell with fond memories of a true gentle man.

“ I haven't seen Russell since High School. I considered him a friend. He treated with respect as I remember despite my personal shortcoming then. He was funny and made people around him laugh. Every time I pass by his old house I wondered how he was doing. He will be missed I'm sure by all he touched. May God take him into his Kingdom and watch over his family.

“ To Bridgette, Peyton & Tyson, I am so sorry for your loss. Please take comfort in knowing he is in a great place, only to see him again. Meanwhile he is watching over and protecting you guys. I will never forget Russell's chili and the time he tricked me into eating deer meat. He got a kick out of the fact he was able to convince us it was ground beef and then looking forward the expression on our faces when he broke the news that it wasn't beef but venison! LOL My first experience with eating Bambi. God bless all of you! -Rachel Figuera (Heather Ashmead Lyon's cousin)

“ To the family of Russell E. Hall: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that God works in mysterious ways or that God needed another angel, does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32).
