She earned numerous accolades, including Employee of the Month honors, special parking privileges, trips, concert tickets, and monetary gifts, all recognizing her as an Outstanding Sales Associate. “Mama Ruth radiated love, kindness, and generosity. She was the first friend that my mom made when she moved to Georgia. We love her humor, her wisdom, her welcoming nature, and her cooking back in the day. I loved watching Mama Ruth and Mama Kay chatting and watching their favorite TV shows. It always warmed my heart that her good friend was right down the street. I have the fondest memories of her and I know she is well loved by her family and friends. I am happy that I had the honor and privilege to live under the same roof the last few years and I will always cherish the memories. I'm so glad Mama Ruth is now at peace and with our Lord Jesus. May God comfort her family and friends as only He can do for Mama Ruth will be greatly missed. We will meet again!
