“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family. I know that the loss of a love one brings much grief and agony. Thanks to our Heavenly Father we can find resurrection (John 5:25 Acts 24:15) and the end of death and suffering.(Revelation 21:3,4) Getting to know the true God and his son Jesus , assures us all eternal life (John 17:3) For more Bible based comfort on how to cope with the death of a loved one visit : www.jw.org

“ I offer condolences and Scriptural encouragement to you all. May your faith in God's resurrection provision help you bear your sorrow. God's Word promises..."The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28,29). When Jesus was on the earth, God empowered him to raise up ones who had fallen asleep in death. This loving provision will be carried out on a global scale in the future because God promises..."Your dead will live....They will rise up." (Isaiah 26:19). Remember...God is faithful and always keeps his promises!

“ *To the Family:
May " the God of all comfort" grant you all peace as you look ahead to the fulfillment of his promise to resurrect dead ones. When Jesus was on the earth, God empowered him to raise up ones who had fallen asleep in death. He will carry out this provision on a global scale in the future when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28,29). Jesus confirmed his role in raising up dead ones when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). God is faithful and always keeps his promises! (Consider Revelation 21:3-5).*

“ *Aunt Ruth really loved to cook, I remember baking a peach cobbler for my family reunion.
It was awesome like everything she cooked.
She will be missed at all of the family gatherings. RIP Ruth you've finished your course. We will miss you greatly. Love Cynthia and William*
