“ Our deepest condolences go out to Ms. Jimmerson's family. It was an honor and a privilege to have met such a beautiful and kind soul and have her be my children's instructor over the years. She recognized the musical gifts in children and encouraged them. Moreover we will cherish the joy of the time we were blessed to spend with her and the nuggets of wisdom she always dropped in my daughter about her musical gifts. I will forever cherish the nuggets of wisdom she dropped in my spirit as a mother as I often listened as she gushed with love and pride about her beloved daughter and grandsons. The impact she left in, not just our lives, but the lives of many others will be long-lasting and she will forever be missed.

“ When we were little knuckleheads running around at the Williams family reunions -- Aunt Ruth's smile was always one of the biggest among the adults. (Someone you could run behind to avoid getting in trouble ;))

She LOVED her Nicole. And, those beautiful boys.

Holding space for you in this difficult time.

“ I will always remember Ms. Ruthie's beautiful smile and positive attitude. She was a joy to be around. I remember all the days she made us go to Sunday school class when we stayed out late as teens. So funny now! I remember her teaching us new songs for children's choir rehearsal. So many wonderful memories I'll carry with me forever! ❤️

“ As a young girl, Ruthie Love found her God given gift of music and adorned it with her passion for helping others. She was "music educator extraordinaire"! Ruthie wanted every child to take music lessons affordably -- never Charging going to rate. And, when she identified a child with natural talent, she was always excited and passionate about his or her future. MY SPECIAL FRIEND for many years, I will miss her, but I will always remember the good times we had together. It was our joy to serve in church music positions with purpose. Ruthie was a lifelong member of the CHRISTIAN METHODIST EPISCOPAL Church where she served not only in music, but as proficient Sunday School Teacher and writer -- having written a book for children on the history of the church. She loved all that she did and did it well. Bernard Clay

“ Ms. Ruthie was a sweetheart! Smart, sassy, interesting to talk with, and funny. The first time meeting her, I immediately liked her, in the same way, I had connected with Nicole.

I will always remember the times we gathered for dinners, the fun Halloween party when somehow we had six boys — and no girls! Ms. Ruthie entertained us by carving several beautiful Jack'O Lanterns— we were all both delighted and awed! I have many fond memories of knowing Ms. Ruthie, and I'm glad that Jerry and I were a part of her journey.

We send prayers and condolences to our good friend Nicole and her sons Niko and Morey. We hope you will rest comforted in God's peace and be inspired by the sweet memories each of you shared with your mother and grandmother.

*Aunt Ruthie fondly remembered, she called me miss B. I can hear her voice. She will be dearly missed. She was a lover of The Lord, family, and friends. Her heart was with Nicole and the boys! She was always ready to give needed advice I was always asking for advice. She possessed an infectious smile that always made you feel welcome. I loved her so, but the Lord loved her so much more. From labor to reward I will see her again!

*To : Nicole and Family
Thank You Nicole and your Friend for informing me about Ruthie.*

*Ruthie and I (Belvia Tyiska Strickland) met on the Campus of Texas College in Tyler, Texas as Freshman and Music Majors. Our friendship lasted through the years. In February of 2020, I visited her in Atlanta, We had Lunch and talked about our Families and our lives through the years. We had fun.
I talked to Ruthie about six weeks ago on the phone.
It's been really hard for me to accept the fact that my Friend is gone "Home" to be with my Lord.
With Caring Thoughts.
My heartfelt wish meant simply to say, May God bless and strengthen you and your family each and every day.*
