Deepest sympathy to the family. My son Rendon went to sub school with Ryan. He was known as Cheeyoung in the Navy. My son mentioned Cheeyoung many, many times and considered him a good friend. He said he was kind and they would spend hang out whenever they both had free time. He will be greatly missed. Fair Winds and Following Seas 🇺🇸🚢

I am sending My deepest condolences to the family of Ryan Chee Young. I was Ryan's Physical Education teacher when he attended PS 399 in Brooklyn NY. He was a wonderful student who had a quiet spirit, loved playing games with his classmates. Ryan had a great love for his friends, even back then. I admired the close bond he had with his mother. My heart goes out to his Mom, Dad and all of his family and friends. May the Lord give you comfort and peace knowing that he is your guardian angel watching over you. God bless you all. Lovingly submitted, Ms. Kennedy, PS 399.

I was Ryan's 5th grade teacher at P.S. 399. I was deeply saddened to hear of his passing at such a tender age. Ryan was a brilliant student who readily made connections and even then, showed signs of being a problem solver. I remember he used to sit with his feet tucked under, whenever he took a test. He was a pleasant, respectful, young man back then, and it is evident that he managed to make an impact during his short sojourn on this Earth. I extend heartfelt condolences to his Mom and all of his family members. I know that words are inadequate at this time but you are truly in my prayers. May God grant you peace and comfort during this time. Ms. W. Ambrose, PS 399.

“ You know that I'm the only member of the family that doesn't have a gaming system. With that being said, i usually go over by Mark & play under his profile. EVERYBODY knows its me when I get on, therefore No one wants to be on the same team as me. But Ryan & Jr. were the only ones to give me a chance. I even won with them... Once.

But I still won & that would never be possible if he didn't gimme a chance. So thank you Ryan. For giving me a chance & making me a winner. Your compassionate spirit will live forever in my heart!!
