“ I lit this candle for you my lovely Ryan who was the first child to call me grandma and so I adopted you in that position and I will always love you and miss you but I do now that you are one of the many flowers in God's heavenly garden. And to my extended family I do know that God will continue to sustain you for in spite of it all"God is yet still good".

Ryan by Michael D. Simon. You were my nephew who I truly loved, As you take your journey amongst the doves, Sometimes in life its hard to bare, The problems we face but just know I care, So to the Somefun family as you grieve and pray, Just know we feel your pain even in L.A. So as I conclude and think and think about crying, Just wanted you to know the love I have for Ryan. "R.I.P" Nephew!!!

“ My friend Jackson,

Ricky, Tristan, Looper, and I sat down and did the math, it's crazy once you slow down enough to see how rapidly things happen. In 6 months you went from being a perfect stranger to one of my very best friends. I miss you dude....I miss our laughs, crazy stories, even basketball with you man. I'll miss your honesty more than anything, one thing I can say about you is that you always ALWAYS told me the truth no matter how hard to say or how hard to hear. I love you man, you were and are my brother. Every night I pray that you have found peace and that one day we will laugh again. I'm sorry you were so far and that we couldn't be with you when you needed us, but I hope you know that we loved you as you were everything about you, from your love of crime drama movies to your inability to dance but strong desire to do so. I'm saddened that you are gone but I am strengthen by the fact that the time you had here you spent some of it with me. Thank you my friend I pray that you've found peace and know how loved you are.

“ I love you Ryan, me and little Lavell miss you so much man. We were a trio on 41st street, the majority of good memories I had as a child you were apart of. I'll never forget the time you knocked down the bedroom door from the bathroom side to see me and my brother while our dad had us on punishment for what I don't remember. He had something holding up the door because he was repairing it but didn't finish. Or how about the time me, you, and little Lavell went to Aunt Margarett house and took Wesley's playstation and ran home after we did it? There was never a time you came around raining on anyone's parade if anything you brought sunlight to all of us even if we were having a bad day. Whenever you came around I already knew I was gonna have an awesome day. Thank you for making all those weekends spectacular, there will never be another like you, ever! I wish I had half the energy you had as a kid man you were like a highly agile robot lol! Tell Uncle Louis hello, tell our grandparents hello and I'll see you when I get there.

“ Ryan, your Auntie Toni will always cherish the relationship YOU formed between the two of us. Distance kept us apart, but love bound us together. Thank you so much for trusting me with your heart! You will live in my heart forever. I'll never forget the last time we spoke and the "I Love You's" that you shared with everyone you spoke too that day.
All of your Cousins, Aunts and Uncle will miss you, but your little brother Randal will miss you the most.
