“ My dearest sister, I miss you so much, words cannot express how my heart is feeling. But I know you are at a better place and the months we have spent talking on the phone, sharing your life, your pains and even the joy that we shared knowing that you had given your life fully to Jesus, makes all the difference. You are with your Savior, your joy has been completed and because of that I have that peace within me, that we'll see each other in that sweet by and by. Rest in peace my beloved sister.

“ To my loved Aunt Sadie, may your soul sleep on in peace. I remember you being a loving but disciplinarian aunt. You held you standard and moral principles and that's a legacy that will continue to live on in my life and the lives of your children, grand children and other family members. I will remember that you were very inviting to me on the vacation trips to the US and would ensure that my time with you was well spent. You have ran the race, kept the fight and now it's time for you to rest. We will always love you. - Tamika & Damion Haughton Lobban

“ The Shaws - our cousins Patricia, Robert, Richard, Shelly, Connie, Brian and Lindsey - Oh our heartfelt thoughts and prayers are with you, your spouses and children today. Despite the occasional it's actually a time for families to hold one another close and love much on each other. I found out from experience no matter how long a parent lived or how old we are at the time of their transition it is still a great loss. We were hoping to be there. So sorry we are not there for the final farewell to a wonderful mother and aunt. A great woman that was given to such loving hospitality. We have such wonderful memories of Auntie Sadie and Uncle Lynn like that. And the summers our families had together back home - precious, precious memories. God has truly, truly been so good to all of us! Love you all and be strong our family! – The McKenzie's
