“ Mrs Turner,

Gosh, I remember the times I would come to your house before and after school because Bridgette became my friend in Kindergarten. You would reach up into the cabinet and give us cookies for a snack. Bridgette and I became friends because of school, our families created a lifelong friendship because we travelled together and enjoyed celebrations together. I must say Mrs. Turner because of the friendship that you and my mother forged our bond as Friends (Bridgett and I) became stronger. Your influence on my life is something that I will always hold near. A few years ago, I remember reaching out to you with an invitation for my Parent's Anniversary. We had not spoken in a while but I knew that you would come. We talked frequently, up until their anniversary celebration and to my delight I was excited that you and Mr. Turner joined us. We had a great time, a great fellowship, but I never would have thought that it would be our final time. Thank you for the love and light you shared with the world for the time Our Father in Heaven shared you with us.

Love you always,
