“ We pray that you be granted peace and comfort during this time of the loss of your loved one. May God continue to bless and keep you until you meet your mother and sister again.

Mrs. Boglin and I were co-workers at Macy's and remained friends through the years. I will truly miss her smile and her quiet manner. Until we meet again.

“ My deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one; Psalms 90:10 tells us: “The span of our life is 70 years, Or 80 if one is especially strong.” May your hearts be filled with loving memories of “happy” times together, as you celebrate a life well-lived.

“ May the family be comforted by the beautiful words found at Hosea 13:14 which says: From the power of the grave I (God) will redeem them; From death I will recover them. We can put trust in this promise because at Titus 1:2 it says; “God cannot lie”.

“ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. God promises a future when "Your dead will live....They will rise up." ~Isaiah 26:19. Jesus confirmed his role in that promise when he said..."I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." ~John 11:25. "God's Word is truth." ~John 17:17
