“ We love Sally so much. She raised four of us children, Doug, Tom, Terri and me (Lisa) for 20 years. She was always so cheerful, funny, and a delight to be with. I remember coming home every day loving seeing her there at the house. Sally was a very wise and strong lady who was also so reliable and had such a great work ethic. She was definitely our other mother. We truly respected and loved her dearly. Sally always had an uplifting, positive answer to any question you ever had. We loved loved Sally. We will always look back and have very fond memories of you Sally! We love You, the McNeal children.

Sally was a friend to me growing up in Siloam, GA. She was a very sweet person, didn't get to see her much because the family moved away to Atlanta at an early age, but I always cherished the memories we shared with her sisters Gladis and Dorothy, we love you but God loved you more, A friend Leola Dunn

I knew Sallie from American Red Cross, we were not in the same department but worked closely with each other. Sallie was a sweet and funny person. She was a delight to know. Her and her husband, Clarence Sinkfield were very sociable and good hearted people. They were giving and helpful. Sallie you will be missed and Wallace Williams has nothing but love in his heart for you. Rest my sister. God has another angel
