“ The journey we take through grief is not made alone. The death of a loved one reminds us that our time on earth is not designed to be the end, but the beginning of new life with the One who created us. Through the days to come, I pray that our Father will continue to bless you, and that you will always know His loving arms are around your family.

“ I remember the fond memories of Richmond Heights, the fourth of July, and most of all Uncle on the cymbals at church. His smile and saying hey LeeLee. Uncle S.M. will be missed. I know what it's like to miss your father. But I know Uncle will always be in your hearts as my Dad is in our hearts.

Love Lita (LeeLee)
