Hold to the many wonderful memories you have of Mrs. Sammie Lee. She is alive and active in a new place and will have a new body that will not age or get sick. Praise God for many years with her. May He comfort you as you mourn her transition to a new life.*

“ RIP Granny. You will forever be in my heart and my spirit. I love you to the core and words cannot express the sadness I feel. You lived a long life and was a true grandmother to us all. I can hear your voice and will miss the phone calls, visits, and of course the homemade goodies you blessed us with. Your legacy will forever live in us. I LOVE YOU Granny but God needed you more than we do. Wrapping my arms around you with the biggest hug a grandma could get.

“ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death and I offer Scriptural encouragement to you all. Remember...."God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1John 4/9). Jesus assures us..."I am the resurrection and the life.

The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). "God's Word is truth." (John 17:17).
