“ Mr. Beasley was once neighbors of my brother Sam and I on Casher Drive. He was nothing but helpful to me in my adapting to life in Atlanta. I haven't seen him in about forty years. God bless his family.

“ Although Sam was my father's cousin, he treated me as his own son. He opened his home to me instantly and gave good sound advice to me and my family. His home was my home, food and all.

His children loved him to life and he always made whoever was around him laugh. He was TRULY the life of the party. He loved the Lord as well. He will be greatly missed.

Rest in peace Sam 🙏🙏
