

Samuel L. Copeland

August 27, 1963 - August 1, 2018

“Don’t grieve for me, for I am free. I’m following the path God laid for me. I acknowledged His call when I heard His voice, and though I will miss you all, I have honored His choice.”

Samuel Lee Copeland was born on August 27, 1963, in Atlanta, to Ruby Copeland and Sam Fowler. He was affectionately known by all as “Sam.” He attended DeKalb County Public Schools graduating from Gordon High School in 1981 and later attended Clayton State University. Throughout his life, Sam was a dedicated hard worker, employed with Georgia Baptist Hospital for 18 years and later transitioned into Real Estate becoming successfully self-employed. At an early age, Sam confessed a hope in our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

While on Earth, Sam touched many lives through his kind and gentle spirit. He was known as a very unselfish person, a giver and model of excellent character to his family and friends. He always carried himself as a refined gentleman. All who knew Sam respected and held him in the highest regard. Sam was a special person and we were blessed to have him in our lives.

Sam was united in Holy Matrimony to the beautiful and gracious Gail Cesta Sain on November 28, 1992.

He departed this life on Wednesday, August 1, 2018.

Sam leaves to cherish his precious and loving memories: a devoted wife, Gail Sain Copeland; a loving mother, Ruby C. Jordon; a wonderful son, Alexander Nicholas King; a loyal brother, Darryl Copeland (Carmelia), ten sister-in-laws, Ten brother-in-laws, uncles, aunts and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
