

Samuel Culbreath

December 6, 1953 - July 13, 2023

Samuel Culbreath returned to the loving arms of his creator and parent's; father and mother, Rev. Ludie & Carrie Culbreath on July 13, 2023.

Samuel was born on December 6, 1953 in Atlanta, Georgia. As a young boy, his siblings expressed how Samuel "Sammy" was the apple of his mothers' eye and could "Do No Wrong".

He attended Grove Park elementary school and continued onto West Fulton High School for his secondary education.

In 1972, Sammy joined the US Army where he served as a Tacwire Specialist. While proudly serving and carrying out his duties, he welcomed his first child with high school sweetheart, whom he later married.

By 1975, he was honorably discharged from his duties.

Now employed at Lockheed Martin for 5 years, he then made a career change to become a professional truck driver with Roadway Trucking Company until his retirement in 2010.

Our father was humorous and had the ability to tell a great story. He was witty, had impeccable style, a huge heart and most of all he carried a tremendous amount of love for his family.

Daddy enjoyed a wide genre of movies and music. His favorite meal was a T-bone steak well done with potatoes and cherry pie.

Samuel is survived by 5 children: Samuel T. Culbreath (Nicolette), Ellis Ferrell

Culbreath, O'neshia Shena Culbreath, Corlisa Culbreath-Madden (Carlton Sr.), (Cora Fortuchang "mother/ex-wife"), Fedall Culbreath (Annette Stokley "mother").

Siblings: Alphonzo "Al" Culbreath (Jeanette), Betty Kirkpatrick, Ludie "Jerry" Culbreath, Faye V. Culbreath, Berndine Stewart (Fred), Patricia Ann Culbreath.

Preceded him in death: Rev. Ludie & Carrie Culbreath (father and mother), Rosia Mae McClendon & Queen Watson (sisters), Michael David Culbreath (brother).

12 grandchildren, 3 great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
