“ Samuel Raymond Divine, SR; had lived an amazing life even though it was rather too short. I got to know Mr. Divine in early 2001 when he operated a money transfer service in Ghana for Liberian Refugees in the Buduburam Camp and my children were there at the time. He made it very easy and simple for me to send money to my children who resided at the Refugees Camp. He was a blessing.

What is it that we remembered when we think of Samuel Raymond Divine, SR, I think everyone who knew him very well would agree with me on this. It was his sense of humor.

Samuel Raymond Divine, Sr death was sudden. I remembered when I got a call from Mrs. Samantha Divine Jallah informing me of dad's passing. I simply could not believe it. I paused for a while trying to process it and Samantha asked if I was still on the phone, because that was not the kind of news anybody would be expecting about such a good man, relative, father or a husband.

Samuel Raymond Divine, Sr is in Heaven now and we were either at his funeral or watching from further distance places. This is not the time for us to grieve his death, but it is our time to celebrate his life. He never wanted to see people cry. He was full of smiles. He wanted to make everyone happy.

So at this moment, let us all remember how Samuel Raymond Divine SR touched our individual lives. How he made us laugh and how good he was as a person. This is not the moment for us to shed our tears, but we should all be thankful that we were given the chance to have known a man named Samuel Raymond Divine Sr directly or indirectly.

Samuel Raymond Divine Sr will forever be missed, but I know in the right time, we will meet Samuel Raymond Divine Sr again. On behalf of my wife and my children, I say to his wife, children and bereaved families, here in America, Liberia and around the world, Your Never-mind Ya! And to Samuel Raymond Divine Sr, we say *farewell, farewell brother, Rest in peace and sleep well.

John Fahnbutu*
