Elder Earnest L. Brown, Officiating-----Obituary
Sandra Lois Brown was born September 21, 1960 to the late Claude Nelson Brown and Cordelia Character Brown in Atlanta, GA. Raised in the Grant Park Community, she attended Hoke Smith High School, where she graduated in 1978. Sandra obtained her Associates degree from Georgia Perimeter College and subsequently worked as an employee of the United States Federal Government where she served for an impressive 27 years. There, in her various capacities, she was surrounded by many co-workers and loving friends. In her adult years, she attended Progressive Church Atlanta, under the leadership of Elder Earnest L. Deas. She later attended Family of God of Church, pastored by Elder Marion L. Deas, serving faithfully as the Women's Department President until the Lord called her home. She was preceded in death by her father, Claude Nelson Brown, and her brother, Michael N. Brown. She leaves to cherish her memory her mother, Mrs. Cordelia Brown; her brother and sisters Mrs. Diane Brown Roberson, Mrs. Denise Smith (Henry), Ms. Alfreda Brown, Mr. Ricky M. Brown Sr. (Angela) and Mrs. Wanda Deas (Marion); seven nieces and nephews, Tameca Lewis (Greg), Carlos Wilson, Ricky Brown Jr., Brandon Brown,

Marion Deas II, Jasmine Roberson, and Caleb Deas; a great-niece, Kaia Lewis, and a great-nephew, Jordan Lewis; aunts, uncles, and a host of other relatives and friends. _____ Wake service

“ To the Family: May the God of all comfort continue to sustain you as you look ahead to the fulfillment of the resurrection promise. The Bible foretells a future when All those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. ~John 5:28,29. Remember...God is faithful and always keeps his promises! ~Isaiah 55:11, Revelation 21:3-5
