“ Dear Family and Friends,

The funeral service held for Sandra at Word of Faith was absolutely awe inspiring! Her appearance during the viewing exemplified an exceptionally beautiful woman. Her make-up was perfectly applied by her daughter, Gina. Sandra was truly gorgeous!

Sandra was my Spelman buddy, who visited my room often when on campus. My room was her place of refuge after attending classes and transporting books around campus. We remained friends after Spelman, and our children became acquainted while attending Woodward Academy. After this, we were both proud to have mutual lawyers in our respective families. We remained friends for 53 years!

Sandra was definitely our "fashionista," and we often compared notes on our apparel and favorite stores. She was special.

I will miss her, and I already feel a void. Rest well my friend without the physical hurts and pain. Kirby, Sr. took care of you on earth and God will take care of you, now.

Sisterly,

*Dr. Victoria Williams
Spelman Alumna*

*Hello Bishop Kirby Clements & Family:
My heart was sadden when I heard that my lovely friend and sister has entered into the eternity of God. I was not sadden that she has Triumph into Glory, but sorry that I did not hear her say hello Thomasina one last time. I know that part of you desires to be in Glory, but as Sandra would say "We all have to do what God has called us to do". I send my heartfelt love and prayers to you and the Clements Family. Love never fails, and Love will and has carried you through.
Love Forever, your sister in the Lord!

“ My sincere condolences to the family, I remember when I was younger and running around the old clements house with Kirby and Gina and the neighbor, sliding down the laundry shoot, until Sandra in her motherly calm voice I recommend you all stop what you all are doing she said it so softly but we knew she meant business.

“ My sincere condolences on your dear loss. Can you imagine a time when there is no more funerals, no more cemeteries, no more tears of grief, but tears of great joy when our enemy death is destroyed forever? Well, this is what our Loving God, Jehovah, promises to occur soon (Isaiah 25:8; 26:19). What a time this will be! Then, we will be truly able to enjoy life with our loved ones the way our Loving Creator originally purposed. May these thrilling promises, soon to be a reality, soothe your hearts in the days ahead.
