

Mrs. Sandra Arnita Thompson

February 25, 1950 - August 24, 2023

Sandra A Thompson was born in Atlanta Georgia to her late mother Rosa B. Adams and late father Eddie J. Dennis. She transitioned into eternal rest Thursday, August, 24, 2023.

Sandra attended Atlanta Public Schools and was a graduate of Luther Judson Price High School.

She was united in holy matrimony to the late Johnny Thompson and to this union two children were born, Sabrena and Jerald.

Sandra worked in many capacities for a number of years at Brook Run Institution for the developmentally challenged. She later worked at Grady Memorial Hospital, where she retired in 2020.

Sandra's bags were always packed no matter where the destination. She was ready to go with passport in hand. In her retirement her body was so conditioned to the night-shift, she spent endless nights talking on the phone and ready to received calls in the late-night hours. She had an infectious laugh and was a natural comedian. She found humor in all things. She always showed up at every grandchild's and greatgrandchild's recreational sports.

She was a faithful member at Berean Christian Church in Stone Mountain Georgia under the leadership of Dr. Kerwin

B. Lee Senior Pastor.

She leaves to cherish her memories, a daughter: Mrs. Sabrena Delk (Earl Delk), a son: Jerald Thompson, grandchildren: Quoneshia Thompson, Juwan Thompson, Deshawn Gregory, Earl Delk II, Tori Delk and Chancellor Delk, sisters: Mrs. Deborah Givan (Bishop Dr. Jake Givan Jr), Mrs. Angela Holder, a brother: Eddie J Dennis Jr, an aunt: Ms. Mary Lett, devoted friend: Glenda Atkinson, five great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.
