“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family. The loss of a love one brings much grief and agony, but there is so much comfort that can be found in God's word the bible. The promise of a resurrection at John 5:28, 29 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. Taking in true knowledge of the true God and his son Jesus, assures us eternal life. (John 17:3)

“ May "the God of all comfort" grant you peace as you all look ahead to the time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." ~John 5:28,29. God is faithful and always keeps his promises! (Joshua 23:14). Keep in mind... "God sent forth his only-begotten Son into the world that we might gain life through him." ~1 John 4:9. In harmony with this provision, Jesus said: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." ~John 11:25

“ David writes: "Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34:18) This phrase is "an expressive way of saying that the Lord is attentive and watchful, always ready to help and to save his people." It is reassuring to know that God watches over his people. He sees what they are going through in these "critical times," and he knows their innermost feelings. Like a loving parent who holds and comforts a child in distress, God is near to his worshippers who cry out to him for help. He is eager to comfort and soothe our broken heart and crushed spirit. He can give us the wisdom and strength needed to cope with any trials we may face.—2 Corinthians 4:7
