“ My condolences to the Jones family. May our heavenly Father Jehovah give all of you the needed comfort and strength to get through each day. The Bible tells us that Jesus wept when his dear friend Lazarus died. Yet, just minutes later, Jesus performed an astounding miracle - he raised Lazarus back to life. (John 11:32-44) In doing so, he gave all mankind solid grounds for faith in the amazing promise he had made earlier in his ministry when he said: "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." - John 5:28,29. May the precious promise of the resurrection to life on a Paradise earth comfort you and give you peace. My deepest sympathy.

“ I wanted to send my sincere condolences to the Jones family. I am very sorry for your loss. May the memories that you've shared with Sarah provide comfort for you at this difficult time. Also comforting are the words at Psalm 147:3 which says, "He[Jehovah] is healing the brokenhearted ones, and is binding up their painful spots." Know that death is not a natural part of life, for it is not what God intended for mankind. Therefore, He has made provisions to bring back to life those who have fallen asleep in death by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) So there is hope, but in order to see these future blessings fulfilled, one must take in an accurate knowledge of Jehovah God and Jesus Christ, so that these blessings can become even more real to you. (John 17:3, James 4:8) My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ To the Family:
May your faith in God's loving provision to restore dead ones to life comfort you all as you look ahead to the time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." ~John 5:28,29. God is faithful and "He sent forth his only-begotten Son into the world that we might gain life through him." 1 John 4:9.
