

Saretta Monique Garrett

December 1, 1968 - July 29, 2021

Saretta “Rita” Monique Garrett, known to some as “Momo or Bonnie Lass”, was a loving, helpful, and tenacious daughter, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend. She left the world unexpectedly on July 29, 2021 at the age of well...she wouldn’t want us to tell you, but 52 years young.

Saretta was born to Ruby J. Bowles and Willie “Mane” Garrett on December 1, 1968 in Toledo,

OH. Saretta graduated from Jesup W. Scott High School in Toledo, OH in 1987. After high school

Saretta chased her dreams.

Saretta loved social events, traveling, and making people laugh with her wit and sense of humor. She took extreme pride in her grandchildren Kylie, Journee, and Savaya. They loved spending time with her as much as they could especially on holidays, birthdays, and special occasions because Saretta always put them first, that’s how big her heart was.

Saretta is survived by her mother Ruby J. Garrett of Toledo, OH, daughters Candice Gregory of

Lawrenceville, Georgia, Porsche Gregory of the USA, sisters Salena

(Anthony) Jones, of Lagrange, Georgia, Tina (Mike) Lamale, of Sylvania, OH, brother Willie Garrett II, of Toledo, OH, grandchildren Kylie, Journee, Savaya, longtime friend Carolyn Tarver and a host of nieces and nephews.
