

Ms. Savannah Taylor James

September 29, 2006 - January 10, 2023

Savannah Taylor James affectionately known as Van or Nanna was born to Natasha and Darnel James on 9/29/2009

She was born in Concord, NC her parent's only country baby The Youngest of 6

She enjoyed good food, family, and friends around, and playing Just Dance and Wii Sports

Savannah was a freshman at Archer High School, Dacula Ga

Savannah LOVED CHURCH and was a member of The Faith Center Atlanta where Pastor Campbell and Lady C were her spiritual parents.

Savannah Passionately believed in forgiveness. She truly showed love and didn't hold any grudges. She loved those who were mean to her or didn't even know her. She knew how to make strangers feel like family.

When people look back at the life of Savannah, remember her not for the alignments and faulty body she lived in but for her Love, forgiving Spirit, and Luminous Smile that brightened everyone's heart.

She is survived by...Her Parents are Darnel and Natasha James, her brothers Christian, Nicholas, and Matthew Price, and her sisters Tiara James and Madison James (who is like her second mom, best friend, dance partner, and shenanigans sidekick). Grandmothers Katherine Ford and Katherine James. Uncle Lamar Jones Jr., Aunts Akeemia Wilson, Donna Gordon, Dionne James, and Laurie Jones. A host of Aunties and Uncles where blood couldn't make them closer. Cousins and Friends will miss her tremendously.

Savannah's Favorite Quotes were "I LOVE MY FAMILY" and "I LOVE YOU"!
