“ ~ For Jaade-Alexis ~

Lord, if roses grow in Heaven, please pick a bunch for me. Place them in my Father's arms, and tell him they're from me. Tell Daddy that I love him, and miss his loving smile. Place a kiss upon his cheek, and hold him for a while.

Remembering is easy and I'll do it every day. The brokenness within my heart may never go away. Your passing leaves an empty space that only time will heal. Your LOVE leaves me with MEMORIES that no one else can steal!

With my deepest sympathy for the loss of your Father ~ Auntie Randy

“ It still seems so unreal Scott. We talked Tuesday. You were still weak from your hospital stay and the surgeries but you were pushing through. The last thing you said was "I'm going to rest Dee, I'll call you later." I haven't been on FB in a minute but something lead me to log on and what did I see but a "RIP Scott"...my heart broke, I couldn't believe it. I called your phone only for it to go straight to voicemail. Get your rest my friend. I miss you and our weekly talks.

I met Scott in the early/mid 80's and hung out with him a few times when we traveled to Decatur from NC. He was a funny and charismatic guy. I hadn't seen or spoken with him in many years but was definitely saddened to learn of his passing. Be at peace, my friend.

“ My sincerest condolences to the family of Scott Byers. Losing a loved one in death is painful. It's such times like this that we should look to the Almighty God for comfort. Psalms 34:18 says, "Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit."

May your reflection on this promise and your many fond memories of Scott give you the strength you need to endure this difficult time.
