“ My memories of you will last a lifetime, you were and always will be my brother. Your smile was as bright as the sun, your words of wisdom have carried me...I'll always hold you close to my heart. I miss your bodily presence, but I know that your spirit lives on. I love you, Lou. Forever and a day. Your Sister, Dina.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Grief can be so hard, but our special memories help us cope during this most difficult time. May Jehovah, the God of all comfort, the love of your family and friends give you the strength you need to endure. (2 Corinth. 1:3,4)

“ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. Keep in mind; "God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1 John 4:9). Jesus confirms his role in restoring life to dead ones in his words recorded at John 11:25..."I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life."

“ We can never be prepared for the loss of a loved one nor can we avoid the pain. However we are offered comfort by the scripture here at John 11:25, 26: "Jesus said to her: 'I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all. Do you believe this?'"
