

Sharon Quillin Campbell

October 15, 1949 - April 2, 2024

It is with great sadness that the Campbell family announces the passing of Sharon Q. Campbell of Atlanta, Georgia on April 2nd, 2024. Sharon was born on October 15th, 1949, in Tampa, Florida. She was a beloved wife to Clarence Beni Campbell and a loving mother to her son, Chaka Q. Campbell.

Sharon was passionate about contributing to the lives of the people she encountered both professionally and personally. She enjoyed congregating with her extended families from Saint Anthony Catholic Church family, Atlanta Nature Gurlz group, Georgia Department of Corrections colleagues, Morehouse College and Atlanta University Center schools, Southwest Dekalb High School Football and athletic family, Atlanta Braves Baseball Club, and the community members of the Southwest Atlanta neighborhoods. She was selfless in her giving and always lent a helping hand to those who were in need.

Sharon believed in Christian stewardship and will be remembered for her kind and gentle nature, her love of life, and her generous heart. Sharon was full of life and loved her grandchildren. She especially loved her close lifelong bonded sisters, Mary Lewis and Francine Wells. She will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her.

Thank you to the staff of Piedmont Hospital, Northside Hospital, Dr. Chad

Miller of Atlanta Cardiology, Dr. Andrew Sloan of Piedmont Physicians Neurosurgery Atlanta, Mr. Sam of Sandy Springs Nursing Rehabilitation Center, and the loving gentle staff at MeSun Health Center for providing exceptional comfort to Sharon in her final days. Funeral services will be held at Saint Anthony of Padua Catholic Church located in the historic West End of Atlanta, Georgia on April 18th, 2024, at 11 AM. In lieu of flowers, the family has requested that contributions be made to Saint Anthony of Padua Catholic Church Atlanta, Georgia
