“ I met Sharon about 2years ago and so blessed that I did..Sharon was always there when I needed someone to talk. She was like a sister to me..Every morning when I came to work I always had to give her a BIG hug before I started my day...If I didn't she would say girl I know you didn't sit down without giving me a hug(she made my mornings and I made her mornings)While she was out sick I missed her hugs and long conversations..Sharon would always ask me about my son Gaddis and she use to bring him books and every now and then send one or two dollars to him:) She would always tell me stay humble and don't change forknow one... Thanks for the advise Sharon. I'm going to miss you so much,but I know that you are in a better place...Love you and you will always have a place in my heart

“ The world we live in seems so large but yet so small, my husband actually graduated from High School with Sharon and I met Sharon through my uncle. Sharon was such a beautiful person with a smile that would light up a room. Sharon has always had a zest for life but she was getting tired and God was in need of a Special Angel so he called her home. Family just know that God doesn't make any mistakes and only few are chosen but God only wants the best and she deserves to be free of pain because she has earned her wings! Mrs Barbara you raised a beautiful empowering young lady who loved her son(Corey) and daughter (Pernitka) very much so I pray that you find peace in knowing that Sharon has done all the good here on earth that she can but God has work for her to do in heaven and he needs her beautiful smile to shine down on us and watch over us day to day!! Corey and Pernitka hold on to the many values that your mother has instilled in you and just know that she wants you to keep the faith and let your light shine while you are here on earth! Peace& love Quinton and Phooh-Phooh

“ I am glad the lord blessed me with the opportunity to met you. Since day one you were helpful(like a second mom). I am glad I had you to turn to when I had “puppy” questions and I can say that Chase is happy too. When I heard about the lord calling you home, I was really torn apart because I know exactly how your family is feeling right now. In June 2007, my uncle passed with liver cancer and it was really hard for my mom to deal with it, but then the lord reminded me that it was time for you to go, he reminded me of the pain you suffered while you were here. So I am no longer sad . You are home with our father where there is no more working two jobs to make ends met :). I know you are smiling and watching over all of us. I will continue to pray for your family so they can have closure and know that you are in a better place. I will continue to pray for your kids Neka, Corey, and Bailey in hopes that they continue to be strong. Hey at least u will get to met Martin, Coretta, Michael, and Gerald and anyone else that u have always wanted to met. I love you girl.

“ My thoughts are with you all. Sharon was such a blessing to us all. She was always selfless, and was a beacon of light to everyone in which she met. She was so spiritual, and made everyone around her want to be a better person. I am so blessed to have had her in my life, as everyone who ever met her was. She was a true Angel her on earth. I will never forget her and will always hold her and the family close to my heart.
