“ Remembering your wonderful mother and wishing you comfort and strength as the Lord cradles you during this challenging time. One thing that stands out to me the most about Sharon Smith-King is her smile and the way she laughed. Bye for now GE friend! May you continue to be a beacon of light!

“ In memories of Sharon rest in peace in the arms of Jesus. God has chosen from his garden this beautiful Rose Sharon we love you but God love you more. Family we are praying for your strength and remember you will see her again if you are save. Repeat after me those that are unsave Jesus come into my heart, save my soul. I Repeat of my sins and receive you into my heart I believe you died for me in Jesus name. You are save if you prayed that prayer.

With a heavy heart I want to express my deepest condolences to Sharon's family. Sharon was a true southern bell. A kind and gentle soul. She loved her family dearly. As a former co-worker at GE I remember her constantly talking about her kids and husband. I will surely miss Sharon, and I truly believe that I will see her again. God please bless her family and give them strength in the days, months, and years ahead.
