“ To the Murphy/McClary Gang, although our hearts are broken, we can rejoice in knowing Sharon is at peace with our Father. From Collier City to Conyers, she was the same sweet humble soul that loved the Lord. Continue to trust in God and I promise He will give you comfort. Lean on each other as you always have. Rest in Peace my friend, I'll see you on that other shore. Your Pompano friend, Mary Beauchamp

“ I met Minister Sharon in 1989, while she was not a licensed minister at that time, she had a ministerial, quiet and unique anointing all over her. I NEVER heard her say a cross word about anyone. She was meek and mild and welcoming. Truth be told, it was her smile and demeanor that kept me amongst the fold of the Young Women and Jr. Matrons Auxiliary of the Women's Dept in the Seaboard Bapt. Association~Florida General Baptist Convention. There, I said it! Yes, she knew! I told her once she announced she was relocating to my home state, Georgia. We spoke about reuniting and bringing that purple and white and blue and white to the ATL. It was here that she finally graduated from royal blue to purple. We never reunited the purple and royal blue, that's a regret at this moment, but I know the Lord actually had bigger works than that for the both of us. So Lord, I thank you for the spirit Sharon possessed and unknowingly shared with us all. Til that One Glad Morning, I say "See you then my Sister and Friend, Minister Sharon Y. Murphy-Ellis."
