

Sharon Denise Robinson

September 14, 1953 - April 27, 2020

Sharon Robinson was born on September 14, 1953 to the parents of the late Arthur and Norvelle Rutledge in Detroit, Michigan. She attended Detroit public schools and later travelled abroad to Aschaffensburg, West Germany to receive her high school diploma. She continued her education and earned her Associates degree from Phillips College.

Sharon was raised in a close knit family. Sharon was one of eight children. Tria Rutledge (Detroit, MI), Helen Johnson (Stone Mountain, GA), Jeannie Carter (Detroit, MI), Jerome Rutledge (deceased), Daryl Rutledge (deceased), Marilyn King (deceased) and Curtis Johnson (deceased). In fact, she talked to her sister, Tria, almost daily. Tria was not only her sister, but also her best friend. As a child, her parents instilled the importance of having high integrity and morals. This type of upbringing shaped Sharon's values and being a person of high character. She was strict when it came to your word and believed your word was your bond.

Sharon was joined in matrimony to the late Johnnie Robinson, Jr. in July 7, 1978. She served as a wife and first lady while supporting her husband in the US Army as they travelled abroad to Germany. She worked in music ministry as a youth choir director for over 30 years. Her love for music and influence brought out the gifts in many Saints.

Sharon Robinson had a dynamic, special and close relationship with her sons. She instilled confidence in them and taught them failure was not an option and you can conquer all things through Christ who strengthens you. She was a person with an infectious smile and great personality. She was known to give the truth and give wise counsel.

Sharon will be loved and missed by many. Sharon is survived by four sons: Demetrius Robinson (Houston, TX), Corvell Robinson, Johnnie Robinson III, and Marco Robinson all of Lawrenceville, Georgia. Three sisters: Tria Rutledge, Helen Johnson and Jeannie Clark. Nine grandchildren: Nicole Anderson, Ashley Robinson, Ebony Robinson, Jaderra Comer, Bryanna Robinson, Brandon Comer, Darius Robinson, Malachi Robinson, and Elijah Robinson. Nieces and nephews: Tritese Rutledge, Roneica Johnson, Marquita Rutledge, Cadence Peterson, Syanne Duston, James Duston, Latrell Peterson, Sr., Latrell Peterson, Jr., Travon Rutledge, Jordan Rutledge and Gavin Duston.

Mrs. Sharon Denise Robinson of Lawrenceville, GA passed away April 27, 2020. Services entrusted to Gregory B. Levett & Sons GWINNETT Chapel (770) 338-5558

“ My wife and I send our deepest condolences. First Lady Robinson as I know her was the greatest pastors wife I have ever known. She never said a whole lot but when she spoke everyone listen because she always has something good to say. She loved her husband and her family. She was a role model for every mother and she will be greatly missed. She was a “Woman Of Worth” & Purpose For Christ. WOW, that what you say when you look upon her life, WOW.

Rest In God's Eternal Peace,
