March 28, 1953 - June 11, 2023

Sharon's Story

Her journey began on March 8th, 1953 in Kingston Jamaica.

After leaving Fritz Henry Commercial School, she found her passion. Teaching Kindergarten. she taught at Kingsway Preparatory School in Jamaica. At the age of 25, she then migrated to the United States living in Maryland.

Sharon's love for children led to a life-long career as a care taker, "nanny" to several families in Maryland. One of her many attributes were her unwavering donations and services to numerous children's Charities. As she so strongly believed that children are the future and with the proper guidance they will succeed.

Sharon retired and relocated to Georgia in 2022, where she continued to live beautifully, until she was called home on June 11th, 2023.

She will be remembered, never forgotten as she has imprinted her love, care and wisdom to all that has known her.
